Year-to-Date 2014 Belvedere Residential Real Estate

August 2014

Marin Overview

Nearly 9% more Marin County homes priced $1 million and above have sold year-to-date in 2014 compared to the same period in 2013.

More good news:

- Average selling price is at a record high for single-family homes sold having increased 16% vs. 2013 to $1,384,000.
- For homes selling above $1 million, the average selling price is $2,027,000.
- Thirty-four percent more homes sold above $2 million compared to the same period in 2013.

The Marin real estate market continues to accelerate favoring sellers. The inventory of homes for sale continues to be extremely limited, frustrating many would-be buyers. Fixed supply, low interest rates, strong job market, and increasing buyer purchasing power continue to force selling prices to higher levels.

Year-to-Date 2014 Belvedere Residential Real Estate

Belvedere Overview

More homes sold in Belvedere year-to-date 2014 (29 homes sold compared to 22 for the same period in 2013).

- Prices are continuing to rise. The average selling price for 2014 increased 10% to $3.3 million vs. 2013 average.
- The average price per square foot sold also increased to $1,031.
- Sales activity is strong for homes selling between $2-3 million.
- Six homes have sold above $4 million compared to just 2 selling during the same period in 2013.

More expensive homes are now selling. Pricing in Belvedere is now within 8% of the 2007 highpoint. Currently there are no homes for sale priced between $3-4 million. Inventory is limited in all price points leaving buyers very little choice.

We expect demand to continue during 2014 as buyer confidence has noticeably returned.
