

MILLSTEIN MARKET REPORT

Year-to-Date 2014 Ross Residential Real Estate

August 2014

Marin Overview

Nearly 9% more Marin County homes priced $1 million and above have sold year-to-date in 2014 compared to the same period in 2013.

More good news:

- Average selling price is at a record high for single-family homes sold having increased 16% vs. 2013 to $1,384,000.
- For homes selling above $1 million, the average selling price is $2,027,000.
- Thirty-four percent more homes sold above $2 million compared to the same period in 2013.

The Marin real estate market continues to accelerate favoring sellers. The inventory of homes for sale continues to be extremely limited, frustrating many would-be buyers. Fixed supply, low interest rates, strong job market, and increasing buyer purchasing power continue to force selling prices to higher levels.

MILLSTEIN MARKET REPORT

Year-to-Date 2014 Ross Residential Real Estate

Ross Overview

An identical number of homes sold in Ross during 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. Twenty-seven homes have sold. Some very good news:

- Prices are continuing to rise. The average selling price is very near the 2007 highpoint having increased 12% to $3.2 million vs. 2013.
- The average price per square foot sold is at a record high having increased 14% to $922 vs. 2013. Nearly 50% percent of homes sold over their list price and within 30 days.
- Eight homes have sold above $4 million compared to just one selling during the same period in 2013.

Inventory is extremely limited with very few homes on the market. Currently, there are no homes currently on the market priced between $ 2.5 – $5.8 million. This unusual void has left many would-be buyers waiting for new inventory.

We expect strong demand to continue for the foreseeable future as complete buyer confidence has noticeably returned.
